$6 m to $5.80, according to their descriptions

MARCH ##, #884

lachments of soldiery cut off in the wilderness. A farced quarch through these regions, from the Red Sea to barracks in the Soudan, which could not be add to heavy and too dirty to carry most likely bring the made in haste nor without the aid of numerous camels, would, if successful, remost likely bring it doubtful if Baker would have form in a worn and spiritless condition. It is doubtful if Baker would have fared much better in his attempt to reach the Soudan, were hadd swaped and the bound a look of calm, conting to do with business. "I am a spiritless condition of the return sales and that nothing that the standard for his own employes. Severe criticism has possing the pole will spare characteristics had been expressed at action which the editor-inchief. Wound and a half for his own employes, Severe criticism has nothing to do with business. "I am a spiritless called Van Giesen, will find the good on which the editor inching that the standard for his own employes. Severe criticism has possing to do with business. "I am a scarcher after truth, and I want for the return sales and that nothing to do with business. "I am a spiritless called Van Giesen, will find the point the money did not belong to have possed at action which therefore a sagent was two and a half for his own employes. Severe criticism has possing to do with business. "I am a scarcher after truth, and I want mentioned on the return consultation and a half of his own employes. Severe criticism has possing to do with business. "I am a scarcher after truth at a knot of who is who; it is right that the point the money did not belong to have possing the spondance of the so-called Van Giesen, will find the point the money did not belong to have possing to which the editor-in-chief. Wound and a half for his own employees. Severe criticism has possing to do with business. "I am a scarcher after truth, and I want when the moth of the current of the return constitute of which the editor-in-chief. "Young man said the would have been better for the half of reach the Soudan even had he been hospital wears a policeman's badge and The Press paragraph consists of four backed by the Hussars and the High- claims to possess a policeman's author- sentences. Mr. Burgess' quarrel is (of many planters whose interests must be were in a rather bad boat not so bad, tian troops are conscripts; the whole body of the fellahin, the peasantry, has been despoiled of its youth, and the despoilation has been going on for despo mon custom for the fellahin to muti-

It is a question of growing importfinger may enter without getting burnt. That Egypt is incapable of taking care of herself has been sufficiently evidenced. The boasted reforms of the late khedive were absurdly exaggerated; his generosity was shameful in so much as his already impoverished subjects were stripped to meet his requirements. His effeminate successor has proven how little he is able to Medical

THE KAKAAKO DISGRACE.

"After us the deluge," cried La worked in Honolule. But we welcome wilfully abetted therein by his official superiors; the conduct of the so-called overstgation. board of ill health seems hopeless. If to apply most appositely to the con-there had been any doubts that the dition of our island forests. board of ill health seems hopeless. If to apply most appositely to the content of the post appositely to the content of the post appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the content of the post apply most appositely to the post apply most apply most apply most appositely to the post apply most apply

SATURDAY PRESS to exercise that power against t who had incurred his displeasure. Mr. N. F. Burges How coulds poor dependent creatures. Bufletin as follows: like the lepers in the horoital be expected to come forward under such disparagingly of the eight non-movement. I circumstances and testify freely to any have herefolier looked upon that paper, as one facts likely to damage the superior for reform, as it has ever been callied body tendent. Again, for the three or four the constrained for such measures. That is days which elabored between the distance well; but why speak against individual reforms. turbance and the pretended investiga. I have known individuals as well as corpora-tion, the witnesses were all left in the tions, to get their help on three-quarter time hands and at the mercy of Van Geisen and pay at the same rate, and all this without (so called.) With his policeman's badge consulting their neighbors, or the press. Sep-The recent British victory near volver, he had all undant opportunity to think that perhaps he ought in just his help The recent British victory near volver, he had abundant opportunity to that that perhaps he ought to pay he belt coax, threaten, bribe, bully and intiminate proves that under certain favorable circumstances the British det the only persons who know any may hope to conquer the rebels in Egypt. The humiliating defeat of turbance and who could have given information about it. The patients months attempt to relieve the deliver of the patients of the patients of the patients of the patients.

odds are therefore greatly in favor of the rebels. The heat of Egypt is hourly increasing; shortly it will be by this individual are true. Whether insufferably hot in and about the desert. he lied to the reporters of the Gazette gentlemanly presentation of its writer's The desert, though it has been com- and Bulletin, or whether he lied to the view, and because its writer has had ared to a sea of sand, is by no means premier and the attorney-general, or pared to a sea of sand, is by no means a level tract, but is undulating—a whole army might be swallowed up out of sight in the troughs of that sea; it solve. That the different stories which how Mr. Burgess disposes of what the whole army might be swallowed up out problem we are at present unable to bas cliffs and chasms and narrow passes he told at different times were all true, and ambuscades. There are hot winds is impossible. But why waste words is impossible. But why waste words The paragraph is so short that we that drive fever into the veins, and hot in exposing so transparent a sham as sand-clouds that parch and lacerate this so-called investigation. We trust the skin; and there is always the glare the legislature will not be many days in of the sun and the glare of the sand session before this branch hospital ini Burgess, but the distinctly important that blind the eyes, together with the combre outline of the sand against the sombre outline of the sand against the investigation ordered which will go to sky that seems to have tinged the destruction of the whole matter. Whenever traces with melancholy, and is ever this is done, we are confident that enough to madden the unfortunate de- a change in its management will be tachments of soldiery cut off in the wil- inevitable. Even Fitch the original hour movement by making that the standard

No little surprise has been expressed shall made any inquiry into the manner expressed we wrote in the mildest of have reached bed rock) and plants remember having to pay as high as in which that authority is exercised? mild language about criticism that tion profits are bound to be less this twelve per cent, for a little bill troops, for, "even when they know If not, why not? The charges against spoke of Mr. Burgess in a way that year than last, in proportion to the of two thousand on Boston. You see they will be killed if they surrender, this person are of such a nature as to would not look nice in print but in the yield. Many of these plantations have all the exchange or nearly all had to they throw down their arms and submit imperatively demand an examination justice of which those who used the been carried on under most discourage come through the firms that dealt with to be butchered on their knees;" and why has it not been made? Again, the language undoubtedly believed. The ing debt and difficulty. Only the most the whalers. There was C. L. Richardthe pretence that they cannot serve violent breaking into a house, particular writer of the paragraph in the Press successful of them are able to forego & Co. where Pierce & Co. are now, and it?" said the youth. "Beshew me, under British officers because they are larly at night, is a very serious offense, did not believe in the justice of the any source of revenue. They need the Tom Spencer in Bolle's place. Brewer lad, I know not. We have a legislature rency. One of the first things that the 'aliens in race and seligion," is called What are we to think of the fact that epithets employed; and he was con-profit on the exchange they sell to & Co. did a big business and Cart- and "more eloquent than words, that The majority of the the men engaged in such an under vinced of the sincerity of Mr. Burgess' make good the deficiency arising from wright dealt with the whalers also. Egyptians are Mohammedans; the Mo- taking are never subjected to any legal motives. The third sentence hazarded the fall in the Cuban basis," "In other Those four firms had most of the hammedans are fatalists; they stand to trial, never even arraigned before a better if the more might have been plantations are now suffering must be if the rest of us wanted exchange we smiled pleasantly as Telemachus enter of exchange."

The process whatever—are never brought to trial, never even arraigned before a better if the more might have been plantations are now suffering must be if the rest of us wanted exchange we smiled pleasantly as Telemachus enter of exchange."

The process whatever—are never brought the assertion that "It would have been plantations are now suffering must be if the rest of the community?" had to buy it of them. When the ed. "It is a long story. I may not and without a murmur. The Egyphand without a murmur. The Egyphand without a murmur. The Egyphand without a murmur are conscripts; the whole person who, at most, is a kind of all employers." We still think so. No queried the youth. "Why not?" urged whalers came in, a big lot of goods were tell you in half a day and you could mon custom for the fellahin to mutilate their persons, to cut off a finger or put out an eye, thus hoping to escape a late far more hateful to them than late far more hateful to the more who have exchange to sell that late their persons, to cut off a finger or like the community like this like the same the community like this like everybody says and does about the local community like this

like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this
like everybody says and does about the
local community like this like everybo They have in some cases pre- The Gazette and the Bulletin have in the argument that if Mr. Burgess had prevents them from putting ficath. They have in some cases pre- The Gazette and the Bulletin nave in the against the Bulletin nave in the against the former experience death and have cast themselves taken similar ground—the former experience of the bulletin nave in the against the first (perhaps) no one else per cent every fifteen days. Exchange gold. We generally bought. It was the elimination of so large a proportion of the bulleting metaphor. I conclude: into the Nile, rather than be dragged from their homes, miserable as they are, to end their days in the army of the khedive. There is but one cause that arouses their fanaticism they are nothing; insult pose—to try and find out if the charges fanaticism they are nothing; insult pose—to try and find out if the charges their creed and they declare a holy war and fight with the desperation of frenzied beasts. They have no love for the English nor for any Christian race; tained. There the duty of the attorney were known to have been caused by ill exchange. The latter go to the forme they cannot see what is to be gained general's department ended. It may considered advances in wages made by who are the only men in the com by sacrificing their lives for the benefit as well be made clear also that the English manufacturers who happened to munity having exchange to sell—and of an invader, and it is therefore not brag and bluster of Van Giesen about be in need of operatives. It happens beg for the privilege of buying it. Why surprising that they mutiny in Cairo, sending the men to Molokai (on his that just now there are more carpenters should the exchange merchant not put and when forced upon the enemy, that own responsibility) was mere idle talk. in town that can find employment, up the cost of exchange—just as the they throw themselves upon their knees For that, the physicians in charge -real Doubtless Mr. Burgess' single-handed Honolulu grain merchant put up the and render up a life which has been a so-called—are responsible, to the perpetual bondage without succor and without succor and without hope.

To that, the physicians in charge—real products of the physicians in charge—real conditions of the board without movement can work very little actual injury to other employers, without hope.

Honolulu grain merchant put up the eight-hour movement can work very little actual injury to other employers, without hope.

But has Mr. Burgess' action been of a concluded. to leprosy, and Mr. Gibson rules the character to warrant the belief that he board of ill health, no sane man ought would have been any more thoughtful "It is true," said Prospero, in reply and demand."

ance, how much fire the British to expect anything better than the if there had been a scarcity of labor and to several queries, "that, heretofore and power. And-except for the com- perform? fortable assurance that all lanes have at sor has proven how little he is able to fill a difficult and thankless office. The Endemics and Epidemics, made to the over But not all workingmen are fitfellahin, the bone and sinew of the land, fear and hate their rulers and fornia, at the annual session held in hours wages for eight hours work. No have had little cause to do otherwise April of last year, content to observe through long years of want and degrathrough long years of want and degra- articles of great interest to physicians hire is "worthy" that hire. A first-rate dation. There may be avenues of and students of hygiene; and one paper man can earn at manual labor—which includes mechanical labor—a sufficient some slanger of making England ridic citizen of California. That paper was wage in eight hours to make him worth see Aristides," said Prospero. some slanger of making England ridge citizen of California. That paper was something must be done and done at onceit is probable that Chinese-Gordon's and was prepared by Dr. M. M. Chip-who slights his work cannot (will not) once it is probable that Chinese Gordon's mission is the wisest plan the ministry man, chairman of that committee, has yet expressed, for it may stay fruitless bloodshed and give time for develop-little pamphlet of twenty-five 12mo. Mr. Burgess says that "The hour that man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man has the man has been says that "The hour that man had been says that "The hour t inches and give time to develop in the pamphiet of twenty-live Table.

Mr. Burgess says that "The nour that has been given, gives them [the men] read, grown enthusiastic over, laughed at and forgotten, ever since he began his barbarous, matricidal warfare with gess' employes. If so, they are picked his barbarous, matricidal warfare with all that was most beautiful in nature, men, of whom he has a right to be "The branch hospital scandal still The book was written for purblind 'smells to heaven,' and any chance of California. But there is scarcely a line reform at the hands of our present in all its pages that may not be made

EMPLOYERS IND EMPLOYED. Mr. N. F. Burgess has written to the Baker Pasha in his attempt to relieve the garrison of Sinkat makes it evident must only under such circumstances overseer was unscrupulous, and it was at there any hope for the English in Egypt. These favorable circumstances ing and support of Messrs. Gibson and are singularly limited. So long as the troops are propodly rationed and can, if put their heads into the lion's mouth the men are.

Information about it. The patients known of course to the injury of the months and of course to the injury of the months and of course to the injury of the months and of course to the injury of the months and only every man in any employe. I have more seed the wages of mouth course to the consistent would of mouth of course to the injury of the months and it was explored. Notice that their operation of the months and in a classic than white men are.

not the unimportant fact that we have been unjustly found fault with by Mr.

Mr. N. F. Burgess has initiated the eight lamders with their jokes and bagpipes, ity. We have reason to believe that course) with the last three. When we jealously guarded. Sugar is falling though, as it had been in years before. he has such authority. Has the mar- wrote that "severe criticism had been ('has fallen certainly, and may not yet In that particular year, however, I present disgraceful prostitution of place many unfinished carpenter contracts to most of the plantation agents to proud. But it would not be true of all mechanics. We think that workingmen - including artisans, teamsters, stevedores, clerks, barbers, editors and

THE RADIO OF SEVERAL CRITICS.

Good my critic oil you can a B you may without office-Sit awhite with men of server, Learn to one their languages fears Why all warn of human discoun-Unrann-1 silfakin on your backs You may win what move you tack Energhan from contempt's same a-

WISE IND OTHERWISE "There is not ing in business fishness. Telemachus gazed at Ment with wide eved wonder. O'Then wi are you a business man?" asked to Because I have a wife and babies to feed," answered the gray beard. "Then I wish the millenning would come," sighed the youth. "The Telemachus wem out into the crue tion without adopting the wriggling heart. I will go and see Merchanto, Merchanto is a good example of ntegrity and his shrewdness are alike inquestioned. If crooked dealing or voted as Mentor had been to the un-The knot of merchants' represent "In 1858," said Commissio, "we whom the plantations were generally in marked Clerico, who had been an at-So much for employers. A word, debt-received, by agreement, the pre-tentive listener to Commiscius' mon-now," said Aristides.

ceker. "Do not you remember that roll by," suggested Telemachus, only a few months ago, following the immediate difficulties and note the good paying those debts." business millenmen will come when that might have resulted? Every man that might have resulted? Every man of us hated to pay the premium on achus. "Ultimately?" asked Telem-achus and neither the plantation achus "Ultimately," answered Hampford and neither the plantation achus "Ultimately," answered the plantation achus "Ultimately," answered Hampford and neit being four per cent, on San Francisco, vate speculation chanto for light he found him as de- act very fairly and reasonably. One same money in exchange for gold gentleman remarked that all he got or bonds, thereby admitting that up to christian doctrine that Christianity has asked for as agent was two and a half that point the money did not belong to > few other firms who have any thing in seems." San Francisco to draw against put up the price—'cinch' us and then say it is

"If I may 'put in my oar'", ren the present instance, the agents will of commodities. That meams that it and by commissions." probably divide with the planters, will take a hundred and four or five or community—about which, however, there is an honest difference of opinion; the general inflation. Salaries are high for some do hold that a banking firm which has made such splendid profits owes a duty to its customers; and that the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and that the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and at the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and at the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and at the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and that the time for the everying of that duty is cheaner and that the time for the everying of that duty is the salaries are high of recovering any loss on sales."

"Then the invoice value of sugars is often fictitions," said Telemachus.

"Then the invoice value of sugars is often fictitions," said Telemachus. the time for the exercise of that daty is cheaply, and at a profit, if business were the custom-house valuation of imported

... case, the government took 'snap judg democratic heels as high as his patriment in the very matter we are now cian head. He saluted Telemachus considering and decided that duties with stately courtesy; and answered "But does not some of this money rather man's ignorance of political economy remember how vigorously the com- present unprecedented high rate of ex- turn and when visitors arrive?

The examination of the witnesses is not likely that the rebels will do more than degree their own ranks, is not likely that the rebels will do more than degree their own ranks. It gave the person calling the water of Egypt, apart from that means more rest for the increased rate of exchange to the witnesses than the results of the means more rest for the means more rest for the increased rate of exchange to the means and the enforcement of the witnesses and the enforcement of the means more rest for the increased rate of exchange to the means and the enforcement of the witnesses and the enforcement of the witnesses and the enforcement of the means more rest for the increased rate of exchange to the into the experiment of the increased rate of exchange to the into the exchange to the into the exchange to the increased rate of exchange to the exchange to the into the into the exchange to the exchange to the exchange the orientals are accustomed to it and misrepresent and m the dollar. Who is responsible for this the new silver itself; and has also On the corner Telemachus met and state of things? The new silver has lost the import duty on all the coin me, I will receive it for all tariffs, taxes and brought in. In the meanwhile, the dues. If that will not redeem all you don't On the corner Telemachus met and state of things? The new silver has lost the import duty on all the combutton-holed Fiancius: "The excitement not been coined under the coinage act brought in. In the meanwhile, the amongst our merchants before the sail- of t880. Therefore it is not a governstreet with something like lead at his ing of the last mail steamer was some ment enterprise, at least not a legitithing unusual for this port—the rate mate one. And yet if it is a priby Sir Claus The Kalakaua dollar came in for its Spreckels, he could not have imported share of the blame. The few planta- this mass of adulterated coin into the accessful Christian merchant. His tion agents who were the sellers looked country without paying ten per cent. happy; but some of the plantation duties ad valorem; but he has paid no share holders said they did not 'see' duties, the Hawaiian Government almoral indirection or even obliquity of it; but there would be a row in the lowing it to come in as government business vision have been charged camp if they did not see that goods property. Now this is mysterious and against Merchanto, such charges have would be advanced just this much, perplexing. The government stated in never reached the ears of Telemachus, which they would have to pay for, their answer to the mandamus case But when Telemachus went to Mer Still there are some of the agents which that they were intending to take this > premier or real king to whom the nominal respective holders of those been allowed to pass current here as dollars and quarters. This has been like this copper money, it is too triffing, too meantime, what gigantic intellect is to done very quietly, but already there is be emblazoned with the credit, in the an accumulation of these coins in the having thought out and carriedt hrough the enterprise of making one blade of the enterprise of making one blade of the care of exchange at once. grass or stalk of cane-for that matter. grow where two grew before?"

"But what are we going to do about abrupt pause.

derstanding can be generally benefited—now in that case, any the doctrine of this article—borrowed, by employers and employed—particle—difference," maintained Merchanto. That body and boots, from the arguments neighbors or clse ship the been paid for in exchange. Of course intelligence for many a day. Forgive gold coin and the paper.

> the silver they could not get bonds for in childish alarm and senile wonder behas been put into circulation by the cause the apparent difference in our action of the privy council. Irwin & favor between exports and imports has them superfluous by establishing a dotter our advantage. A little Co. have no need to draw on San not accrued to our advantage. A little them superfluous by establishing a do-Francisco except for the purchase of calm examination of the facts ought to their plantations and in settling trade —that the actual difference in our dent that a double benefit will accrue untraditional declarations, cannot be answered balances here. As a consequence, the favor is by no means so great as it from having the thing adjusted quickly now. Ask them, they may yet be answered. and this surplus coin exported to the

"Here are certain statements of fac all the fault of the great law of supply which may be proved (or disproved) by patient examination," continued Midas. side of this island and within this taxa-"Our exports do not exceed our im-ports by anything like the sum that or condemnation, set apart for the uses appears in our custom house statistics.

Let us try and get at the reason. A This seems almost an outrage to any last a turning—we, who are shouting now, with the employed. Since the mium on exchange. But the agents—ologue, "I should call it usury or 'exchange of all cargoes with the average of all cargoes waiting, on the average of all cargoes waiting, or the av matters, are shouting against the wind—in vain.

FOREST PRESERVATION.

The report of the committee on Medical Topography, Meteorology, Endemics and Epidemics, made to the Medical Society of the eight-hour movement—the world Medical Society of the State of Calibar Medical Society of the

"Probably?" said Telemachus, with more dollars to buy what yesterday or such an innocent rising inflexion that last week or last month was a hundred asked Telemachus. "For this reason: mamed, we should protest against this Prospero put his tongue in his check dollars' worth of goods." "Ah "ejacu- By agreement, the Honolulan shipper action of the board of health. What and winked, eloquently. "You'd better lated Merchanto, who happened to is allowed to draw on his San Francisco need is there for this action? Or is enter in time to catch the last two sen-tences. "My dear fellow, salaries must the invoice value of the sugar shipped. It is of course to the interest of the well, not the unfortunate leper? "But why does not the bank sell rise." "They are always the last to lt is of course to the interest of the exchange against its San Francisco rise," replied Clerico, "and, even if shipper to have the invoice valuation credit? asked Telemachus. "Has not they do, that is a poor way out of the the old bank been liberally supported?" difficulty. Temporarily to raise salaries foreign agent has rested content in the Yes, but it has always given a quid would make it an exceedingly un- known solvency of the shipper, and pro qua" The community owes far pleasant thing to reduce them again. allowed the latter to draw against the more to the bank than the bank to the To do so would be merely to help on over-valued shipment, taking the risk on a sounder hasis; gold payments, goods represents no more than actual

cisco, for it pays what debts it owes your trunk?" "I don't know, but I'm legitimate reduction upon our export here in silver that cov not more than not going to lose money on it by buy valuation (already estimated) we ought The old town on the dollar laid down on the dollar laid down on the state of the boundary of ninety cents on the dollar laid down on ing exchange." "But your money is in to estimate dividends paid to owners silver, isn't it?" "Ves," "Do you abroad; money remitted to aged relaknow how much it is worth in San tives and to absent wives; money spent "But why does not the government Francisco?" "About ninety cents on for education of Hawaiians abroad; speakers who quote the enforce the legal tender act ; and, col- the dollar, isn't it?" "Rather less than money sent out of the country as never looked deeply into lecting its duties in gold, pay salaries that, I think." "Then I guess I'd premiums, marine, fire and life (we goote the law to sustain. and contracts in gold, and thereby put better buy exchange after all," said have no local companies;) money sent gold in circulation?" asked the truth Mechanico. "Or wait till the clouds abroad to pay interest on debts owed a traditional groove, when the law was out of the country; money paid to disputed, and they received it without p shipbuilders in California or the East. mental digestion as undispurable, and connotable decision in the bonds for silver. Hampden sat in his office chair, his ern States for the inter-island steamers it as unchangeable as a law of nature.

. . . should be paid in gold. ? Do not you the young man's queries thus : "The come back to us when our people remunity kicked? Are you reminded of any one long headed enough to see be. Those owing debts abroad have to pay on which we receive the profit? "Yes, fears of successful contradiction, that that have to pay on which we receive the profit?" "Yes, yound the horizon of that occasion's a heavy extra tax for the privilege of but that is fully offset by the expenditures of our own travelling army.

> dear people who must ultimately pay for the candle, don't like the light." ...

The yellow beard of the sententious public money." Midas fairly glowed in the mellow radiance of the sunshine that streamed in through the western window. Telemachus bowed and Midas smiled. Then they parted—the one wishing he paper money nothing intrinsicly. liver as had Telemachus.

The universal sense of the community legislature should be asked to do is to The better money yet remains in circulation. legalize action of this sort. If this be The more bulky part of it is also objection-

The country will have to sustain a loss on the Mexican, French, Spanish and other pieces which are current as money here. The only question to be settled is whether the state or the individual I wished to make. only people who control exchange are the plantation agents. Irwin & Co. have none to sell. Why? Because that which holds up its hands have none to sell. Why? Because view as that which holds up its hands what the answer of the legislature will can ever be depreciated whether made with o be to this question. Whether wisely or without intrinsic value. and must not suffer for these legislative goods—as they use their own silver on convince you—as it has convinced me acts, and, as things now stand, it is evi-> best market that can be found for it.' It is said that Niu, on the southern ery, and to put a leper asylum there would be to destroy vested rights. If we owned land in either of the places The Flowerdew tramway claim seems > diplomatically, at least—pau. It is suggested by the tender hearted Ad-vertiser (Gibson,) however, that the legislature reimburse Mr. Flowerdew for his actual outlay in the matter. Unless it can be shown that Mr. Flowerdew used improper influences to secure his agreement with Mr. Bush, he certainly ought to be paid. Are there not some of the your

EDITOR SATURDAY PRES touching the world's currency, has forced this Do not above quoted law into existence, a curse up fears of successful contradiction, that that law as they shall adopt a correct mode of isming want I will receive the rest at its face value on deposite, and give you a certificate of deposite drawing interest and payable on demand in

To make the illustration still plainer we will suppose these copper and silver coins to be worth intrinsicly only 50 per cent of their face value, the gold coins 95 per cent and the

were so wealthy and so wise as Midas; of speculators rich and numerous should wish to get up a corner to depreciate all the currency excepting the gold coin, could they do When the truth-seeker re-entered the editorial office of this chaste family government will take all the people will spare government will take all the people will spare future pages of Hawaiian History of treasury large enough, if shipped away every way, I'll take it back to the governanother, finally everybody has rejected this is that all this foreign coin should be withdrawn from circulation at the expense of the state, since it was the state shown its power by driving this objectional itself which gave it position and cur- coin out of circulation, notwithstanding it was > done, we may, within a very few weeks, see a favouable change in the position of a large sum of legal tender. "I don't like too much of this silver coin. This small coin answers very well to pay for meals, cigars,

> > You discover that the objectionable currency

Second-"Good money will always drive the bad out of cultivation," if ice redeemed as above set forth.

The many questions that will arise in the minds of thinking men after reading the above Most respectfully, JOHN M. HORNER. Kukaiau, Hamakua, Hawaii.

MARRIED TAYLOR -De COSTA -At the Lidgate P Hawaii, February 1, 1884, by the Rev. Fa aventura, Mr. Wu. H. Taylor to Miss De Costa. Both of Hawaii

Sp Authority.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ints of the SATURDAY PRESS

Acw Advertisements.

TONOLULU IRON